

SL Insulation Pty Ltd.

Testimonial: Steven Lin

Prior to meeting Miles and engaging with BusinessSight, SL Insulation was a bit lost with the direction we were heading and was in a place where we were stagnant.

BusinessSight helped myself and my team with having a clear direction and understanding of clarity regarding linking personal goals with business and work.

I found BusinessSight very useful and rewarding with Miles speak regarding all aspects of business but also having professionals in those fields speak. The new contacts that were made was an extra bonus which I am very thankful for.

Anyone looking to have a mentor business coach, make sure to give Miles a call and have a chat.

Team SL!!!
